August - John Shrader

From Boards to Bowls

Most wood is only available in flat boards. This demo will show how to make bowls from a single board using stacked rings and also how to make multiple closed forms from a single board using staved construction. I will show how the limitation of these approaches can actually be an opportunity for design innovation. For example, the grain direction can be manipulated to produce different surface designs, even with the same shape. If a design is embedded in the disk before the tapered rings are cut out of it, the design of the final bowl can be startlingly different from the initial design.

Letter from the President

Good food, Good mood, Good wood

The food was great, the wood was plentiful and the bids were more than generous. Once again approximately 50 members of the SPSW came together on a beautiful July afternoon to share a meal and possibly win some of the terrific wood or quality tools that were up for auction.

Dozens of bidders vied for their prized piece of wood or that tool that they were sure that they didn't have. Look for some of the wood in the Show and Tell part of an upcoming meeting as a freshly turned item.

Any club event could not take place without the work and support of its various members. Like always there are a few members that deserve a special recognition and thanks. For the past several years much of the wood that has been at the auction was cut, sealed and delivered by Harry Lincoln and Roy Lane, Stephanie Lane and Polly Light handled the bids and collected the money and had everyone on their way promptly.

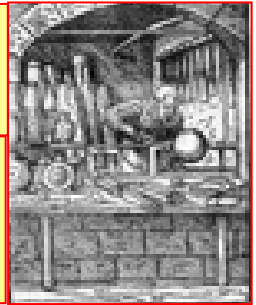

We had a new auctioneer this year; Ken Light stepped up to the challenge and with subtle persuasion deftly worked his way through over 60 lots. At the end of the day we were able to raise over $1300 that will go a long way in helping the SPSW meet its obligations in the months to come.

I want to remind everyone that there will be NO sawdust session in August.

See you on the 18th.

Be safe, have fun and make shavings!

Pat
